ABOUT THIS WINERY

The estate: a place of life and elegance

Loudenne is also a beautiful 350-year long history. A prestigious past that owes much to two British merchants: Alfred and Walter Gilbey. In 1875, these two lovers of life and "beautiful things" decided to make the property their home port in France.

TASTING NOTES

Eye : An intense and brilliant robe, with ruby red reflections.

Nose : Les Jardins Rouge expresses very fruity aromas of red fruits, blackcurrant or black cherry.

Palate : The mouth is rich, dense; one finds there the aromas of red fruits raised in the nose. At the end of the mouth, there is a nice length with silky tannins.

PRODUCT NOTES

Grown on clay-limestone soils, Loudenne les Jardins Rouge reflects the subtle blend of Merlot with a small portion of Cabernet Sauvignon.
