TASTING NOTES

With a slight brickish hue, this wine even looks like old-school Burgundy. A quick sniff and you can pick up those distinctive Pinot aromas of plump cherries and sandalwood. Earthy notes of tobacco and mushrooms, juxtapose with flavours of fresh picked strawberries and clove. The finish is light with gentle tannins and acidity.

PRODUCTION NOTES

The Soli Pinot Noir is the Bulgarian equivalent of village-level Burgundy. The grapes for this wine come from 16 year old vines planted in maroon-forest soils. Maturation occurs for 8-12 months in a combination of 30% French oak barriques and botti, plus 70% stainless steel.
