ABOUT THIS WINERY

The Righetti vineyards, strategically located in Valgatara, in the heart of Valpolicella, have been a family property since their foundation. Strategically located in Valgatara, a suburb of Marano, in the heart of the Valpolicella wine region, the original winery was built in 1909 by Angelo Righetti.

TASTING NOTES

Wine with a deep cherry red color. Quite powerful nose which opens on aromas of candied black cherry, balsamic, green pepper and wood. This dry red leaves perceive a refreshing acidity and has fleshy tannins. In retro olfaction, it lets perceive mocha flavours.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Prolonged ripening of the grapes on the vine. Drying of the grapes on trellis from October to March (3 to 5 months). 18 months in cask and lightning of allier. Continuous refinement in bottle during 12 months. Elaborated according to the rules of the appellation, with fruit passerillage for more concentration. Excellent value.
