ABOUT THIS WINERY

Torraccia di Presura is located in a beautiful part of the Chianti Classico region where vineyards alternate with olive groves and domestic and maritime pine woods, overlooking the river Ema, about 15 km south from Florence. Since 1986, year of purchase of the first vineyard, the estate has been enlarging through the years up to the current 75 hectares, of which about 35 are vineyards and 16 are olive groves.

TASTING NOTES

This wine is of a bright ruby red color,. It reveals elegant aromas of ripe red fruits and floral notes. The palate is full, lively, balanced, intense and persistent.

It pairs well with pasta dishes, white and red meat, braised meat, mature cheeses and all tasty dishes.

PRODUCTION NOTES

A percentage of this wine has aged in small oak barrels and refined in bottle for at least 2 months.
