ABOUT THIS WINERY

Massaya means twilight in Arabic. In Tanaïl, when the sun goes down, the sky turns purple. The vineyard is 1000 meters above sea level and enjoys an ideal climate. We do not know about frost or diseases of the vine.

The wine has been a Franco-Lebanese co-production since 1992. The partners are: Dominique Hébrard, owner of Bellefont-Belcier, Daniel and Frédéric Brunier of Vieux Télégraphe, Sami and Ramzi Ghosn from Tanaïl.

TASTING NOTES

A well-balanced blanc with white flower scents. It combines depth, roundness, crispiness and an oriental sparkle thanks to the local obeidi. Enjoy in the first 2 years after bottling.

PRODUCTION NOTES

conducted at our Faqra winery. Grapes are hand-picked and conveyed in crates. Direct pressing with a pneumatic press, static settling, and fermentation in foudres (30 hl) and demi-muids
