ABOUT THIS WINERY

The Righetti vineyards, strategically located in Valgatara, in the heart of Valpolicella, have been a family property since their foundation. Strategically located in Valgatara, a suburb of Marano, in the heart of the Valpolicella wine region, the original winery was built in 1909 by Angelo Righetti.

TASTING NOTES

An intense ruby red color. Complex aromas of red fruits, coffee, woody and spicy notes. Elegant on the palate, its tannins are particularly melting and it presents notes of red fruits, cedar, coffee and vanilla with hints of spices. The finish is long and lively.

PRODUCTION NOTES

The Sognum is made partly with grapes dried on trellis (about 1/3 Amarone method) from 1 to 2 months, then 1/3 are aged in French barrels and the other 2/3 in Slovenian oak barrels; this gives the wine a superior aromatic complexity (red fruits, spicy and woody notes) and particularly melting tannins.
