ABOUT THIS WINERY

Between Bordeaux and Toulouse, the Brulhois belongs to the family of wines from the South West: this living mosaic of tastes and colors.

Encircling the Garonne, the terroir of Brulhois consists of gravelly slopes and plateaus, sandy-stony soil on the surface and clayey in depth, typical of quality vineyards.

A long experience has allowed us to determine, plot by plot, the best land for the vineyard.

TASTING NOTES

Dress of a pretty salmon pink. The nose seduces by its peach and white fruit aromas. The mouth, fresh and nervous, can be drunk both as an aperitif and during the meal.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Pressing dew. Cold settling. Vinification at low temperature (16-18°C).
