ABOUT THIS WINERY

Torraccia di Presura is located in a beautiful part of the Chianti Classico region where vineyards alternate with olive groves and domestic and maritime pine woods, overlooking the river Ema, about 15 km south from Florence. Since 1986, year of purchase of the first vineyard, the estate has been enlarging through the years up to the current 75 hectares, of which about 35 are vineyards and 16 are olive groves.

TASTING NOTES

Intense ruby red in color, it has aromas of cherry, blackberry and spicy notes of undergrowth and vanilla. It is well-balanced with a nice intensity and good persistence.

Goes very well with veal osso bucco with gremolata, wild mushroom risotto, roasted red meats and seasoned and blue cheeses.

PRODUCT NOTES

93 pts James Suckling

PRODUCTION NOTES

After the harvest, the Sangiovese grapes are fermented in stainless steel tanks at a controlled temperature of 28-30 °C.
